SEMENGGOH WILDLIFE CENTRE

An open-concept orangutan rehabilitation sanctuary established in 1975. Most of the orangutans here were rescued after being injured, orphaned, or illegally kept as pets. They receive medical treatment and jungle survival training to help them return to the wild.

Feeding sessions are held daily at 9:00 AM & 3:00 PM.

PERAYA BAMBOO RAFT EXPERIENCE

Experience the traditional Bidayuh bamboo rafting adventure. Enjoy the clear river, peaceful nature and the unique indigenous way of life.

Savor authentic bamboo-cooked lunch prepared by the villagers using traditional methods.

A memorable eco-cultural journey awaits you!

Excluded:

- Meal
- Traveler's Insurance

Bako is Sarawak's oldest national park and one of the most rewarding places to experience Borneo's natural diversity. Within a relatively compact area, the park contains mangroves, lowland rainforest, peat swamp, kerangas heath forest, rugged coastal cliffs and secluded beaches. It is particularly famous for the proboscis monkey, while silvered langurs, long-tailed macaques, Bornean bearded pigs, monitor lizards and numerous bird species may also be encountered. Reached by boat and explored on foot, Bako combines wildlife observation, rainforest trekking and dramatic coastal scenery in one memorable journey.

SARAWAK Cultural Village, Dolphin watch & Wetland Adventure

Sarawak Cultural Village

Located near Damai Beach at the foot of Mount Santubong, Sarawak Cultural Village is a "living museum" introducing the cultural diversity of Sarawak. Traditional houses represent communities such as the Bidayuh, Iban, Orang Ulu, Melanau, Malay, Chinese and Penan, revealing how architecture developed in response to different landscapes and ways of life. Visitors can enter longhouses, tall houses and farmhouses, observe demonstrations of weaving, beadwork, traditional food preparation and blowpipe skills, and enjoy a colourful cultural performance featuring music and dances from across Sarawak.

Included:

- Approx. 8 hours of service.
- Round-trip transfers.
- English or Mandarin-speaking guide service. (Other language translators are subject to availability with an extra charge).

Bengoh Dam

Located approximately 45 kilometres from Kuching, Bengoh Dam is a gateway to the rainforests, villages and waterfalls of the Padawan interior. A scenic boat ride across the reservoir reveals sweeping views of forested hills reflected in calm waters. From the landing point, jungle trails lead towards waterfalls such as Curtain, Pe'an and Susung.

Kampung Sting

Set above the reservoir, Kampung Sting offers a peaceful village atmosphere and locally operated homestays where visitors can gain an insight into rural life, traditional food and highland farming. The experience combines lake scenery, boating, trekking, waterfalls and meaningful community encounters.
